

North West Sexual Violence Awareness Week

The background of the top half of the poster is a solid blue. Scattered around the large white text are several stylized illustrations of people. At the top, a person in a red jacket and purple pants holds a white sign. To the right, two people hold a sign that says '#NWSVweek'. Below that, a person in a purple dress stands next to a person in a light blue top and purple skirt. At the bottom left, a person in a red skirt and white top holds a white sign. In the center, a person in a purple top and teal pants is pushing a person in a wheelchair. The person in the wheelchair is wearing a dark blue shirt and purple pants.

services and empowering people to speak out.

What's happening?

11am – 4pm at Liverpool's Guild of Students

Come on down on Thursday 11 November to meet local organisations and community groups who support survivors of sexual violence.

5pm – 6pm at St Johns Beacon
(under the Radio City Tower)

Join us in a moment of reflection to honour and remember those who have experienced sexual violence.

Please help up shine a light on the issue and bring the community together to stand up to abuse. Don't forget to wear purple and bring a torch or LED light.

A large illustration of a person with dark curly hair, wearing a white t-shirt and teal pants, holding a large green rectangular sign. The sign contains text about the event.
